Who is Buster?

Welcome into the sonic universe of Buster, the new psytrance project from Stav, one half of the legendary duo Space Jungle. From a deep-rooted passion for music, exploring everything from hip-hop to funk, Buster's unique sound was born from a desire to connect deeply with nature, people and the psychedelic trance culture. His music is a super freaky journey of self-exploration, weaving together funky, swaggy, bluesy and groovy elements into a powerful and exciting blend of psychedelia and euphoria. This hard-working talent and commitment have already propelled him onto stages where he is collecting more inspiration from the crowd which is invited to surrender to his groove. Keep it psychedelic.
